CV CHECK FOR WOMEN

OCTOBER 11, 2016

A well structured and meaningful CV is crucial to get into job interviews—nothing new, but still true! Let us help you optimize your résumé and bring you one step closer to the internship, or job you wish to get.

We'll show you what's important, which things to highlight and what information to bundle. Is your content coherently structured? Is a photo still necessary? Have you thought about all your relevant experience? How about your extracurricular engagements?

If you send us your CV by October 5, 2016 you might be among those lucky ones receiving valuable feedback. Places are limited!

To upload your CV, please follow this link: <http://on.bcg.com/womencvcheck>

Please note, that this offer is valid for all female students in their third semester or higher. Individual sessions will be held in Zurich or St. Gallen throughout the day, and will be arranged with successful candidates in advance.

We look forward to receiving your CV!
